London Athletic Club Will Then Fix Date and List of Events.

Details to Be Arranged at Next

Meeting of the Committee.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—After the meeting of its Committee last Wednesday the London Athletic Club cabled to the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the aspointed to draft a letter, which was posted the same night.

This letter stated that the London Athletic Club regarded favorably the spointed to draft a letter, which was posted the same night.

This letter stated that the London Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club regarded favorably the challenge of the New York Athletic Club and that it would do all it could to bring about the proposed meeting. The letter also asked for details, the consideration of which would be taken up at the next meeting of the Committee.

The Scottish-American Athletic Club did not contain any York A

York Athletic Club did not contain any suggestion as to the list of events, it being supposed that the ordinary University list would be adopted. But nothing will be done officially until the reply of the New York Athletic Club is received.

The Becretary of the London Athletic Club is received.

The Becretary of the London Athletic Club is nothing the English quarter and half-mile champion, of the London Athletic Club, and Godfrey Shaw, the English hurdle champion, also of the London Athletic Club, in spite of the Londo Horan, President of the Cambridge University Athletic Association, the famous three-mile runner, and W. E. Lutyens, the crack mile runner, of Cambridge University, no replies have yet been received.

It is believed by athletes generally that it would have been better had the American challenge been sent to the Amateur Athletic Association, so as to get together an all-Engiand team, as Bacon, the mile and four-mile runner, champion of England and Scotland; H.

stands four rounds before Hornneker or surphy.

The Paritan Athletic Club, of Jersey Clity, it is said, is trying to engage Cal McCarthy to act as boxing instructor of the Club.

Peler Jackson (is England). "I will not retire from the ring until I best Corbett."

James J. Corbett (in America): "Jackson must look elsewhere for a battle. I am going to retire after my fight with Pitzaimmons."

All this makes admirers of "pugs" very weary. H. Curtis, the famous English walker who has already visited the United States; W. G. George, the steeple-chaser; Donovan, the long jumper Ryan, the high jumper, and Hogan, th weight-putter, all champions in their classes, are not members of the London Athletic Club. However, the London Athletic team will include a walker or pole-vaulter.

Although the sondon Athletic Club Committee is most anxious to bring about a meeting, the Secretary also said it cannot go into the matter with its eyes shut. The expense of sending team of twelve men to the United States team of twelve men to the United States would amount to at least $5,000, and, as the London Athletic Club is not rich, it who was tried by Boston last year, will play must clearly be understood how the exmust clearly be understood how the ex-

MOTORMEN IN SESSION.

The Question of a Trolley Strike Not Yet Settled.

Seventy-five delegates from the twen y-five local assemblies of motormen nd conductors on the trolley lines in Brooklyn, met as District Assembly No. 75 in Mugge's Hall, 416 Bridge street, Brooklyn, this morning. The meeting was held behind closed doors.

Martin F. Connelly, Chairman of the meeting, said if it was considered advisable to strike by the delegates, the matter would not be decided until late to-hight at the earliest. He also said it might not be decided for a month.

The committee which waited upc, the railroad presidents with a request for an advance of wages of motormen and conductors from $2.08 \text{ 25.8 a day, stated that in every case but one the request had been refused. The one exception was the De Kalb avenue line, of which John N. Partridge is President.

Chairman Connelly announced that the Brooklyn Heights Company yesterday discharged two motormen who were officers of the district assembly. An investigation was ordered. Brooklyn, met as District Assembly No

Its tone suggests that Debs is posing as a martyr. The entire proceedings of trial and sentence he characterizes as infamous. "There is not a scrap of testimony," he says, "to show that one of us violated the law. I would a thousand times rather he accountable for the strike than for the decision. We can afford to wait. Our enemies are entitled to all the comfort they can extract from our imprisonment, and our friends have no concern." The rest of the document consists of nfiammatory generalities and rhe or.c.
